REED has been re-elected to Congress by an increased majority over that of 1888.

CONGRESS will adjourn about the first of October and will probably pass the tariff bill before doing so.

THE Maine legislature will stand as follows: Senate, republicans, 28, democrats 3; house, republicans 117, democrats 34. The returns from 285 towns give Barleigh, republican, 16, 763 plurality against 12,721, republican plurality in 1886.

NEW YORK city in many respects is as much of an English city as London. It is crowded with anglo-manics and over-run with foreign contract labor. It has more sympathy with British institutions and ideas than with American. The typical American city is Chicago.

It will dawn upon American people one of these days that one of the rights for which the Revolutionary fathers fought was the right for an employer to discharge an unsatisfactory employee without asking the permission of Martin Irons or Terence V. Powderly.—Globe-Democrat.

THE race question in the south is settling itself. The exodus of negroes in the last ten years from the other states to Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas has left a minority in all but the three states named. This is shown by the census just taken. In Mississippi Congressman Morgan thinks that the complete enumeration will show 250,000 more blacks than whites.

A LOT of senile old bachelors in New York have formed a society "to discourage men from matrimony" and it is alleged that it has many branches and is swearing new recruits in daily. The man who originated the move is from Indiana originally, and pretends that he married a beautiful girl who was unfaithful to him and that he is now trying to protect his fellow men from a like fate.

MR I. N. TAYLOR, the aged father of the gentleman whose name is reported to be spoken of for Governor of Arizona, paid the editorial rooms of the Herald office a pleasant visit to-day. He informed us that his son is about fifty years of age and a lawyer of very extensive practice; three weeks ago only he tried a heavy injunction case in San Francisco, and so his practice is spread all over the Union. Whether he is likely to accept the proffered position or not Mr. Taylor thinks it largely dependent upon his health and business demands. Mr. I. E. Taylor has been a resident of this country for two years and is now seventy-three years old.—Phoenix Herald.

WOLFLEY TALKS.

A recent telegram from Washington says: Governor Wolfley, of Arizona, who resigned his office yesterday, is not disposed to say much about the matter.

"There is no ill-feeling between Secretary Noble and myself," said he today. "On the contrary we are the best of friends. He may not have approved in his official capacity of all my acts, but our relations are cordial."

Mr Wolfley is very bitter, however, on the subject of Major Powell's irrigation scheme, and when asked about the differences between himself and the Geological Surveyer he said: "If an army of soldiers were sent to Arizona to drive out the people they could not clear out the country of inhabitants more effectually than the Powell bill would. The people who went out there first did not expect the land laws of the Government to be changed so as to keep other settlers out, but this is the effect of Major Powell's policy. He undertakes to tell the people where to place a dam, where to dig out a canal, where to cultivate a section of land, and it is a misdemeanor to violate any of the provisions of his measure. In the meantime the land is kept from settlement till all his fine spun plans are perfected. Maj. Powell is doubtless a good engineer; but he is not a horticulturist, and the practical knowledge of our people is to be preferred in the construction of dams, reservoirs and canals to the dictum of a theorist."

Indians Dying Off.

THE following dispatch says: News that the government census showed 2,000 less Indians at the Rosebud agency than rations were being issued for caused no surprise here among those most familiar with the government's mode of dealing with the Indians. An "investigation" may show that everything is all right, but there is a prevailing opinion among most of the squaw men, and others in a position to know, that the correct census of the Indians at the different agencies will show a wonderful shortage of Indians, compared to the names that draw rations. But there is no doubt that the Indians are rapidly passing away to their happy-hunting-grounds. A writer recently spent a couple of days at the Cheyenne agency and it was appalling to note the number of young Indians who were in the last stages of consumption. It seems that last winter, the grip got hold of them, the result of which is that nearly half of the Indians at the agency are hopelessly consumptive.

The severe winter of the Dakotas are too much for the Indians now that they are discarding their native costumes and adopting the customs of the whites. The government may provide warm clothing for them, which they will wear for a few days. When they get a leave of absence they strike for the nearest settlement, sell their clothing for half its value and return to the agency half naked, probably some of them in breach cloths, regardless of the season or the kind of weather. They are ignorant of the law of health and tend to their early and rapid demise. Another season or two of grip like last winter and the Indian race will be no more in South Dakota. Children born to full blood Indians are puny and weak, showing every sign of early decay. Those in a position to know say that there are few of the grown men who have not contracted the diseases incident to vice, all of which tends to place Lo in a very pitiable plight.

Eczema From Childhood.

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of the disease. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs, Ark., and was treated there by the best medical men, but was not benefited. After that, under the advice of a noted specialist, I tried the celebrated Clifton Springs, New York, without any good results. When all things had failed I determined to try S.S.S., and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. I have since recommended S.S.S. to a number of friends for skin diseases, eruption, etc., and have never known of a failure to cure.

Killed By Indians.

The news which reached Tombstone last Saturday of more Indian devilment being committed, was doubted, but all doubts have been set at rest by the arrival of Silver City and Lordsburg papers giving particulars. From the Liberal we glean the following information: The three men killed were named H. Williams, Peter Rigg and Volney Reator. They were found in a nude condition, with all clothing, arms etc. taken from them and their heads mashed in. Lisat, Clark with 50 scouts, went to the scene as did also Capt Keys. The latter trailed two Indians to the line where their trail was lost owing to the heavy rain. A cowboy named Riley says that some Indians left the reservation last Wednesday stole some horses on the side and went toward Stein's Pass, where they killed a cow and made shoes for their horses from the hide. They chased a man named Brockman into Silver last Wednesday. Captain Keys discovered a fourth man's body horribly mutilated, he was a partner of Rigg named Carl Ehlman. All the victims found had been shot twice.—Prospector.

The Arizona Kick.

The following editorial from the last issue of the kick will be of interest: "To the people of Arizona:—This campaign is just opened and we are already 213 behind. This is a record for the sum of $3.50, but he refused to take us up, so here goes: We wish the people to know that Dunbar, McFord, Brown, Hughes and other gentlemen of the Territory are on the right track

This incubus on the machine of progress don't know politics from bedbugs and can't have our support this fall unless he puts up handsomely. We've sent Christy to Washington to lay the matter before the President. He telegraphed us yesterday that Harrison was a worse bill than Wolfley and then got his back up and got even by postponing the convention for the Northern counties and let the Southern counties hold their own. You see the Governor got wind of what was going on, and loomed up at the White House just as Christy was going out the back door. Brown, you see, had just crawled through a knot hole in the back fence, and was making for the President's bed-room, when our chairman stopped him, told him the result and then sent that dispatch to postpone the convention. There's no man that need think that running an ice machine fits him to run a political machine in Arizona. It takes different kinds of grease to run them."

The following editorial squibs from the last issue will prove interesting reading:

The Kick has the pleasure of announcing this morning that an accident in the press room compels us to change our politics. We have always leaned toward Republicanism, and when the kettledrum on the safety valve of our cylinder dropped out there was nothing to stop the leak with. The expense of repairing was borne by the Republican Central Committee, and we never yet went back on a friend. The full ticket will be found at the head of our circulation this morning.

While we were in the act of picking our teeth yesterday on the main street we swallowed the tooth-pick. We used language, forcible perhaps, but that was no reason why an officer whom we never harmed should arrest us. We went with him though, and the bow-legged offspring of justice fined us $7.50. Without hesitating a moment we asked the scion of Black-jack out in the back yard. This riled him and he swallowed his tooth-pick and swore a blue streak. This was what we were driving at, and his reputation now dangles at our feet.

We made a proposition to the City Council last night to run our paper after election if they will rattle-dazzle that jackass outfit across the way. Our proposition was this: To run every day in the year, to pull for discomportionment and pull the wool over the eyes of those who put up the grease, while we slide in on the oleomargarin.

There is some talk of reading us out of the Democratic party on account of our Republican flap; but those in favor of it do not represent the voting population. The fourth page is still for sale at a live figure. We sold the third page on jaw bone, and its money or music now. We have written an editorial on the party candidates, founded on facts, and it will be well for them to see us before next Saturday to arrange matters.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies. Peculiar in its strength and economy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of the kind which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses Do the Work of One Thousand." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where than in any other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, and no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by C. L. HODG & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

I Think

That between Fires, Quail and Peddlers, that the merchants of Flagstaff have a pretty rough time of it. It has been so in my individual case, it any rate. It does not seem to make very much difference with the majority of people what you sell goods at.

About five persons out of forty-five are good judges of goods and their value, the other thirty-five don't know very much about them and if you should sell an article away below the real cost to the manufacturer, it will not cause any surprise.

They would think that you were making a great big profit and want some article like that in.

I have known people that would put any amount of confidence in what a peddler tells them & very little in their resident merchant's remarks.

Will be found in the Democrat. I shall still continue to sell.
